THE TOWN RECORD

ED ROYBAL, the Demo's sacrificial offering to the polls in November for the Lieut. Gov. post, arrived in San Francisco today to hit the cocktail and handshake circuit.

JULIUS CASTELAN, Daly City chairman for Roybal, revealed to this writer one of the candidate's latest off the cuff statements:

"The GOP thinks they can fatten the herd by feeding them bull."

Roybal probably won't make the Lieut. Gov. job but at least he'll always find a spot as a comedian.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye: That wasn't a cold that made Mayor JOE VERDUCCI's voice barely audible Tuesday night.

It was the initial week of capturing some five dozen hopeful football players at San Francisco State College, where he is head coach.

In the opening week of workouts it's the lungs that take the most punishment, as far as coaches are concerned.

MRS. JOHN M. HARRISON, one of the few women who doesn't have to fudge on her age (She looks 28, has a son 23), had her 25th wedding anniversary celebrated in a rosy manner Friday.

Her husband, a lieutenant commander on the U.S.S. Princeton at San Diego, couldn't make it home for the silver anniversary, so he wired 25 red roses.

Completing the occasion for Mrs. Harrison was an evening of bowling, at which she's pretty proficient... or just leave off the "proficient."

Somebody sez the city is paying $1.60 more per water meter, which means expenditure of an extra hunk of cash amounting to several C notes.

He and his partner struck on a secret lure. They poured Borax soap on fresh salmon roe to preserve it. (Borax ad agency please take note for inclusion in '55 campaign).

In a 4-1 vote Tuesday night, the city council approved re-zoning Teresa Terrace for commercial development in the face of protests by some 60 inflamed citizens and a petition with 98 signatures opposing the action.

Councilman Sanford Vickers registered the only negative vote. In what developed to be the most hotly contested issue since the new council's installation Mayor Joseph Verducci had to stop the meeting, demanding "a little more respect," from one of the speakers who shouted at the council.

"You're forgetting the east side of Daly City." Loud applause for speakers fighting the zoning was given throughout the meeting.

Ricco Lagomarsino, who sought the zoning change so that he might construct retail enterprises on the Hillside boulevard area, charged at one point in the proceedings that the petition protesting the re-zoning "was mis-represented. If all the signatures were acquired the way I think they were, the petition should be filed in the garbage can," Lagomarsino said.

Read Petition
The petition said that commercialization of the property would create congestion with truck traffic, cause on-street parking which would block driveway entrances; result in the area being littered with trash and lower the property values.

Mrs. George Reinstra, 566 Hillside boulevard, in answer to a question by the council, said that she was responsible for circulating the petition. "We have constantly fought the traffic menace on Hillside. We don't want to increase the problem," she said.

Lagomarsino jumped up, retorted that, "The lady that circulated this petition told the signers that it was a drive to get white lines on Hillside boulevard. I can produce witnesses that will verify this."

According to Mrs. Reinstra everyone was asked to read the petition first.

Police Commission Questions Council

The status of Daly City's police department, as far as the council is concerned, was still an unsettled question Tuesday as the councilmen split on whether to give Chief Roland Petrocchi a blanket vote of confidence.

Mayor Joseph Verducci and councilman Edward Dennis said as far as they were concerned "The city is clean." Verducci's statement, on being asked exactly what was his opinion, was "I think Chief Petrocchi's a good cop. I have faith in him."

Dennis indicated he was 100 per cent for the police department and chief. "I think it's our duty to back up our chief. We should go on record as stating that this is a clean town. I have complete confidence in the chief and I think the meeting with the district attorney proved this."

Members of the Citizens' Committee for the Jefferson Union High School District Bond Election will meet again Monday night in the high school auditorium to map plans for the coming bond election.

The citizens group is working for passage of the $1,600,000 Westmoor High School bond issue October 5.

CONCERT KICKOFF

Bring Music A Step Closer

One hundred and fifty civic leaders brought music a step closer for residents of Northern San Mateo county Monday evening when the Vista Grande Community Concert association held its first annual dinner meeting at Rickey's Red Chimney in Stonestown.

Mayor Joseph F. Verducci, who has proclaimed the week of September 13 to 18 as Community Concert Week was introduced by President Thomas E. Brewer.

Mayor Verducci commended the group for the fine effort that has been expended to bring this type of entertainment to Daly City.

Urging the citizens of Daly City and neighboring communities to follow his example, Mayor Verducci purchased the first membership in the new association.

Field Representative
Another highlight of the meeting was the introduction of Miss Alma Lauritzen, Field Representative of Community Concerts.

Discuss New Path For Horsemen At Meeting Tomorrow

Horses and people, or rather horses and fire engines will be the topic of discussion tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 9 a.m. at firehouse No. 5 when the city meets with the Horsemen's association in an attempt to re-route the riders path on Lake Merced boulevard.

Dan Andersen, city administrator, said, "One of these days there's going to be a serious accident at the firehouse with these equestrians riding in front of the building."

The administrator said the city would like to re-route the path to the west side of Lake Merced boulevard.

Representing the horsemen will be E. Herman and Murray Norton.

"Eventually," Andersen said, "We would like to develop a new horse trail completely off Lake Merced on Skyline boulevard."

To date there have been three serious auto-horse accidents on Alameda boulevard in the vicinity of the firehouse.

The gathering will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Board Will Name Amount Next Week

"Inability to foresee" delays in planning in the 1953-54 fiscal year building program resulted in the loss of a $917,000 state loan to the Jefferson Elementary School district, it was learned exclusively today by THE RECORD.

As a result of becoming ineligible for that amount of state funds, the board Wednesday night, in an emergency session, set December 7 as the date for a bond election which would make the district re-eligible for the $917,000.

Amount of December's proposed bond issue will range from $300,000 to $600,000, district superintendent H. Z. Weibel said today.

Trustees will set the amount next Wednesday at their regular meeting.

Weibel termed the loss of the loan last year as a "miscalculation" on the part of him and the board.

How It Happened
This is how it happened:

In February, 1953, voters of the district were called upon to approve a bond issue of $840,000 for building purposes. Under Chapter 19 of the state code, which stipulates that any district whose bonded indebtedness is five per cent of the district's assessed valuation may borrow state money, the Jefferson district would become eligible for a state loan by passing the $840,000. This figure would bring the district's indebtedness to the five per cent figure.

Also on the ballot with the $840,000 figure, was a measure that would allow the district to borrow $917,000. Voters approved both issues, 6 to 1.

Prior to election day, district officials stressed the importance of passing the bond in order to qualify for the nearly-million dollars in state money.

Could Have Applied
Following approval of the $840,000 issue, the district trustees could have immediately applied for the $917,000. However, there are strings attached to these loans.

The local bond money would have had to have been placed with the state money, with the latter dictating what uses could be made of the total amount.

Trustees, anxious to proceed on multi-use room projects that the state wouldn't have gone along with, proceeded to spend the $840,000 for school work they deemed necessary.

At the time, they thought the $840,000 would be used up before the end of the fiscal year, and the district would then be eligible to apply for the $917,000.

Weibel explained the state would have no part of the multi-use room work, but would allow the $917,000 loan when the $840,000 was depleted.

Couldn't Spend It
But the trustees couldn't commit the money fast enough, what with delay in architectural planning and state approval on specifications.

VAG COUNT ON PAULA DISMISSED

Bocci Says Can't Hold For Background

Vagrancy charges against Shirley Jean Grimes (Paula Winters), 23, and two men picked up with her last week in the Crocker Hills area outside Daly City were dismissed by Judge Thomas L. Bocci in municipal court Wednesday.

In dismissing the case against the ex-call girl, Bocci said, "No body can be found guilty on the basis of their background."

Arguing for the defendant, attorney Henry Jacobsen Jr. of San Francisco said that Paula had told the complete truth in her interview. Charges that narcotics were involved in the case were completely false, he said.

Jacobsen also contended that, although his client was parked on private property, she wasn't arrested until after having left the property.

The attorney also established that "vagrancy" was not the case, since Paula had a monthly income from alimony.

Although Jacobsen did not represent the two men picked up with Shirley Grimes, Louis V. Gonzales, 28, and Isadore Iaran, 29, both of 546 Railroad avenue, South San Francisco, the trial was conducted jointly and vagrancy charges against them were also dismissed.

Handling the case for the prosecution was Al Rouse, deputy district attorney. He called only one witness, that being sheriff deputy Joe Kimble, who made the arrest here on September 8.

Nearly five acres of H. H. Smith quarry property was zoned to commercial status Tuesday night by the city council.

The property had been unclassified.

H. H. Smith Jr., asked what type of commercial enterprise was destined for the property, said, "We have no idea as yet."

Councilman Michael De Bernardi at first questioned zoning the area to C-2. "Whoever buys that property from you might do it under the assumption he could put a certain type business there and maybe the council wouldn't go along with it."

Smith said, "Whoever buys this property is going to have to be (Continued on Page 2)

RECORD BREAKING SCHOOL ENROLLMENTS

School enrollment figures climbed to a new high this week as both Jefferson high school and the elementary school district reported record attendance for the new semester.

1,450 students swarmed to the Mission street high school campus, while the total figure for the eleven elementary schools was 4,304 pupils.

At the high school all available space is being used for classrooms, and the study halls were reported too crowded. With only a seating capacity of 840 in the auditorium, students will attend assemblies in double sessions this year.

Another headache, according to Superintendent Stanford Hannah, is providing gym and locker space for the youths. In the boy's locker room students had to share the storage space, although the gym facilities are adequate.

On the brighter side, however, the new $347,000 cafeteria is providing ample accommodations, handling 330 students at each lunch period. The addition will also be used as a study hall.

Enrollment in the Jefferson Elementary school district is up 448 since one year ago and is an increase of 376 since school closed in June. Largest school in the district is Colma school with an enrollment of 1,006 students in grades second through eighth.

council) is why we were not invited to attend this meeting? We're interested in what goes on in the police department and we can't do our job if we're not kept informed of the facts."

The mayor explained that "We asked the district attorney here to discuss two things: The alleged narcotic activities at the Hilltop Lodge and personnel in the police department. The district attorney felt that two phases of the investigation, method of operation and personnel, should not be for public record."

Verducci added that, "Sorenson requested only the official family be present. At first the city attorney and city administrator weren't even allowed at the session."

Executive Session
Attorney Frank Blum told Ricci that the "council can legally hold a closed executive session any time personnel problems are being discussed."

"Did Sorenson say specifically that the police commission was not invited?" Ricci asked.

The mayor answered that "He only said the official family."

"Do you think we would have been allowed in the meeting if the council had asked the district attorney for permission?" Commissioner Whitney speculated.

Verducci replied an emphatic "no to this question."

"Well, then, is there anything you could tell the commission at this point," Whitney queried.

Reads From Notes
"I see no reason why I can't inform you of what transpired at the meeting, as long as personnel or investigation procedure aren't discussed. After all, we can't violate the district attorney's confidence," the mayor pointed out.

Scanning his notes taken at the secret session, Verducci revealed the following:

Sorenson said there was "definitely an undesirable class of people" patronizing the Hilltop Lodge. What percentage were "undesirable" he didn't say.

According to the district attorney, many of the persons frequenting the place are narcotics users, juveniles, or ex-convicts.

Use of phony identification cards was widespread practice at the hangout, he said.

"Opinion Of Chief"
Verducci started to tell the commission Sorenson's answer on the query, "Have you any opinion of our chief?"

Blum interjected, saying that "This is a matter of personnel. If the district attorney wants to inform the public of his stand I think he should do it, not us."

According to Verducci, Sorenson was asked whether he was getting cooperation from the Daly City police. "Yes," was the district attorney's answer.

Asked what the crime status of the city was, Sorenson was quoted as saying, "From a crime standpoint your city is in good shape."

Sorenson also said that there was "no connection between management of the Hilltop Lodge and the narcotics activity."

After Verducci had read notes from the caucus meeting, Commissioner Whitney said, "As police commissioners we are vitally concerned. This clarifies the situation considerably."

"How Did It Start?"
Vickers then asked, "How was the Hilltop Lodge investigation brought about?"

Verducci said Sorenson first learned about the situation in THE RECORD.

Asked at the time of the closed meeting whether he would have eventually uncovered the narcotics activity, Sorenson was quoted as answering in the affirmative.

George Kirchhubel, co-owner of the Hilltop Lodge, was on hand for the meeting this week. At one point in the meeting he arose to say, "May I ask how much the state board of equalization gives the city for liquor control?"

The city attorney said it amounted to $1 per person.

"Then how much of this money is allocated to the police fund for prevention of juvenile delinquency? I asked for a fund such as this two years ago."

The tavern owner maintained that the whole problem "reverts back to phony ID cards. That's how the kids get a bad start."

As the commission-council session was about to close, Vickers asked Ricci pointedly, "Is that all you have to say Mr. Ricci?"

Ricci answered, "I can't very well ask questions when I don't have all the information."

Blum then told Ricci that, "If the council and commission wish an executive session one can be held on this subject."

"DA Move On Own"
Later Ricci questioned the mayor again: "Did the district attorney move on his own or did the police department have anything to do with it?"

"That's a difficult question to answer," said the city attorney. Whitney then told the council, "We would like to hold another meeting with you."

"Yes," added Vickers, "We should have enough confidence in our commissions to fill them in on this information."

Date for the executive session has not been set.

a man of means and I'm sure he'll check with the council before buying property that we're asking a quarter of a million dollars for."

"Would you inform the council if negotiations are opened with a prospective buyer," Councilman Sanford Vickers asked, to which Smith replied he would.

The zoning passed unanimously. The 4.61 acres of property is bounded on the east by Hillside boulevard, north by Crocker estate and on the south by Edgewood Terrace.

tion "dedicated to working for the area east of Mission street."

Property concerned is the southeast corner of Price and Hillside, and northeast and southeast corners of Castle street and Hillside.

On the Hillside and Market site Lagomarsino, in a letter read during the battle, said he plans to locate a gas station.

Enterprises, "such as drug stores, beauty shop, cleaners, barber shop or other light retail businesses," are planned for the other areas, according to the real estate man's letter.

"Not Very Specific"
Councilman Sanford Vickers countered after reading of the letter, "I thought we asked you to be specific about what kind of businesses. 'Other light retail businesses' isn't very specific. Can't you tell us exactly what kind of establishments will be located there?"

"I would like to ask Mr. Lagomarsino that he not answer that question," Councilman Del Wilson said.

"I'll abstain from answering," Lagomarsino replied.

George Habel and Dan Woodward, co-owners of the B & G Market at 584 Hillside boulevard, then charged Wilson with "favoring certain business interests."

According to the market owners, "We have pioneered for off-street parking here and believe Lagomarsino should make arrangements for parking to avoid congesting the area."

In Lagomarsino's letter he said that the minimum front footage of the lots would be 136 feet, while 230 feet would be the maximum.

"Limited Parking"
"We would provide other limited parking space which would take care of any parking problems," the letter read.

Councilman Edward Dennis stated, "I have no objection to Lagomarsino's proposed buildings. I know he will put in adequate parking. I don't know why the north end residents are raising all this agitation when we're trying to build up the southern area. I'm for jobs and new stores mean new jobs."

"Where do you live?" asked Woodward.

Mistaking the question, Dennis answered, "I've lived here for 45 years."

"I don't care how long you've lived here," fired back Woodward. "I just want to know where you live."

Dennis started to answer and Woodward silenced him. "I'll let you speak when I'm ready," the groceryman answered.

"Wants Monopoly"
Wilson implied that Woodward wasn't interested in the community, but was only "trying to get a monopoly on business for his grocery."

Councilman Michael DeBernardi then entered the verbal fray. "Off street parking is still not going to stop the congestion on Hillside. It's through traffic vehicles from Sunshine Gardens and Callan Heights that's causing the problem."

It was then that Louis Stark, 880 Lausanne, shouted, "You're forgetting the east side of Daly City. Westlake has plenty of off-street parking and a complete shopping center."

"More Respect"
Stark's antics drew the ire of the mayor, who silenced him with a few words, calling for "more respect," whereupon the angered citizen apologized.

Mrs. Reinstra spoke again. "We are the people. Shouldn't our voice be heard in the final decision on this re-zoning? There are a lot of people here who are opposing the commercial zoning."

"Yea, what about the next election," asked John Harn, president of the Hillside group.

The mayor replied slowly, as if holding back his anger: "This has nothing to do with the election."

Lagomarsino then entered the discussion again. "I don't think our worthy groceryman here are the only ones entitled to consideration. All the people in the city are concerned."

"Shut Your Mouth"
Woodward retorted, "Lagomarsino knows we're not afraid of competition." Lagomarsino started to speak again and Woodward lashed out, "I wish you would keep your mouth shut when I'm talking."

Councilmen decided to close the discussion and De Bernardi made a motion to that effect, seconded by Dennis.

"I'd like to give them a week to draw up another petition," Wilson said, but the mayor explained a motion was before the council to close the hearing.

Neither DeBernardi nor Dennis would withdraw their action, so vote was taken.

All voiced "yeas" for closing the hearing and approving the re-zoning, except Vickers.

When his turn to vote came he snapped out a decisive, "No."

He explained that there was a great deal of paper work connected with getting a project started and that some times the state can hold up district plans for several months.

On August 13 the new district property assessment role was released, which was much higher than the previous year, thus putting the district's bonded indebtedness several hundred thousand dollars below the five per cent of total assessment capacity required by the state for eligibility on Chapter 19 loans.

The school district building fund is now completely depleted, Weibel said.

"We've got to pass the December bond issue in order to indent the district to the five per cent capacity and thus become eligible for the $917,000 again," Weibel stated.

The Benjamin Franklin school project, alone, will cost $750,000 and trustees will be prepared to call for bids by early 1955, he further pointed out.

during the campaign. Under the Community Concert plan for presenting concerts, a one week campaign for members is held, after which the rolls are closed and no new members are accepted. The board meets, determines the amount of money they have to spend for artists, and under the supervision of Miss Lauritzen chooses the artists to be presented here. With this method no one person has to assume the financial responsibility for the concerts as attendance has been secured through your membership dues.

INVESTMENT AND SAVINGS

It's an accepted adage that anything is cheaper when bought in quantity.

This applies whether it's a peck of potatoes or a school plant for 1500 youngsters.

The board of trustees of the Jefferson Union High School district has called a special election on October 5 to act upon a proposed bond issue for $1,600,000, which will finance construction of the Westmoor High school.

The situation stands thusly: The district currently has $832,000 in reserve from unsold bonds of the 1951 issue. Balance of that money from the 1951 bonds was used to purchase the Sharp Park site, the Westmoor site and to erect the new cafeteria building on the present campus.

The $832,000, plus some $300,000 available from the district's general fund sounds like enough cash to build a school at first thought.

But right off the bat $150,000 of this money will have to be spent for grading, surveying, a new well and water line and other utilities. Fees for the architect, structural and mechanical engineers, etc., will chop the money available left for actual construction down to about $800,000.

Sure, the district could get a good start on a school for that much. Probably they could construct a plant that might accommodate six or seven hundred students.

Blunt facts spoil this rosy picture, however. The present Jefferson High school was built to handle slightly over 500 students. Monday's registration showed 1450 being housed there, an excess of nearly 1000 alone right now.

This year the freshman class is 450 students. In 1960 predicted freshman enrollment is more than 1000.

Obviously, Westmoor High school must be planned for 1500 students.

With the proposed bond money the district can build classrooms for 1000 students and include a gymnasium, cafeteria, fine arts building, library, etc., for the eventual 1500 students.

Classrooms for the additional 500 students can be provided at a later date. Projected plans for the school include these extra classrooms, so the addition would be an integral part of the school, not an expensive and incongruous attachment.

If the bonds are approved, the district can proceed with the entire construction program on one contract.

One contractor vying for a job in excess of $1,000,000 is more apt to whittle his estimates than would five contractors on individual $200,000 jobs.

Moreover, construction costs can be reduced substantially when the entire plant is built at one time. The equipment and personnel are there on the job and costs diminish in proportion to quantity.

If voters fail to approve the bonds, the district will have to keep on building when the new school opens in the fall of 1956.

We have seen too much of this emergency building in the two local districts to want any more of it.

Cost of the proposed bonds would be about 19 cents per $100 as assessed valuation.

This may sound like another burden to taxpayers of the area, but it could eventually run as high as 30 or 40 cents per $100 if the project were done piece meal.

Aside from the primary objective of providing youth an education, taxpayers should also remember that passing the bond issue will actually save them a few bucks in the long run.

DC GI Enjoys Reading At Home Town

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I would like at this time to thank you so much for sending me THE RECORD. It's really a pleasure to read about the people in my home town and follow all our sports. At this time my present position is a gunner on a 3.5 rocket launcher with Howe Company, 3rd Bn, 1st Mar. Reg., 1st Mar. Div.

Besides my job as a rocket launcher, I am a head scout and lead patrols at night along the D.M.2 fence and have layouts every so often. The moral of the Marines here in Korea is great. In my opinion they are doing the great job they are known for.

Well, as I said before, I would like to thank you for sending me THE RECORD. I appreciate it a lot. I believe Mrs. Lemon had something to do with the sending of the paper to me. My thanks to her also.

Sincerely yours,
Pfc. Harold T. Dimond

Polio Campaign Head Thanks Local Residents

I would like to take this opportunity to tender sincere and heartfelt thanks to your newspaper and all people of the community who either worked on or donated to the recent emergency polio fund drive.

We collected more than $1000 in this area and it was due to the enthusiasm and generosity of local residents that this was made possible.

I can't thank each one of you individually but I hope each and every one of you who helped so admirably will take this letter as a sign of my personal thanks.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Sanford Vickers

CAR "SPRING FEVER"

When your car begins to "hit bottom," it's usually a sign of "spring fever." Automobile springs deteriorate gradually through metal fatigue and seldom, if ever, break suddenly. Defective shock absorbers can also cause spring trouble. The California State Automobile Association advises that periodic inspection and service will keep springs and shock absorbers in good order.

GREAT BOOKS DISCUSSION

Mr. Elliott Denslow, an experienced Great Books discussion leader, contacted the librarian last week as a step toward laying the groundwork for the formation of a Great Books discussion group in this area. Mr. Denslow would like to start a group within the next three or four weeks. In the Great Books discussion program, groups of twenty or more adults meet for two hours every other week and discuss under two trained leaders the Great Books selection which has been read by the entire group in advance. Because the members of the group have varied backgrounds and experience, each, in his way, has lived the problems that form the subject matter of the reading assignments. These many different viewpoints are brought to bear upon the same idea or issue, illuminating the individual blind spots and prejudices which are the stumbling blocks to liberal human understanding. Through discussing, asking questions and finding answers, as posed by the Great Books themselves, a person develops understanding and a capability of thinking for himself. The first principle of democracy is that men are capable of thinking for themselves — that every citizen has the ability to make responsible and intelligent judgments, free from prejudice and selfish interests. This ability to judge wisely and dispassionately is promoted by liberal education, and the Great Books discussion program is designed to make the benefits of a liberal education available to all adults.

This stimulating adult education program is open to all adults. There are no educational requirements other than the ability to read, and a willingness to learn. Additional information and literature on the Great Books Program is available at the Daly City Library. Persons interested in participating in the new group are asked to contact the library at PL 5-0850 Ext. 16 — PL 5-0505 after 5 p.m. and Saturdays. Here is an invitation to learn to read with greater understanding and discernment; to learn to communicate your ideas with greater ease; to learn to evaluate the opinions expressed by others; to learn to think for yourself. Why not call the library right away and take the first step toward joining this Great Books discussion group?

Constitution Day
Members of the League of Women

en Voters have called the observance of Constitution Day, September 17, 1954, to our attention. As citizens of the United States, each one of us either directly or indirectly participate in the administration of the government which our Constitution has instituted. Because of this fact, we should all be well informed in the principles upon which it is founded. To refresh your memory, you will find such books as "The Living Constitution" by Saul Padover, "An Exposition of the Constitution of the United States" by Henry Flanders, "Our Constitution, its story, its meaning, its use" by A. J. Cloud, very helpful. These titles and other books dealing with the Constitution will be on display at the library, and available for circulation.

The League of Women Voters is interested in fostering a more active and intelligent interest in the Constitution, and in developing more fully a sense of the values and duties of citizenship. An informed and interested citizenry constitutes one of the greatest bulwarks of democracy. Ignorance and indifference on the part of American citizens weakens and endangers the democratic society, making it a prey to those who would destroy democracy. To quote from "The Living Constitution":

"The American Constitution has turned out to be perhaps the most successful example in history of a legal instrument that has served both as a safeguard of individual freedom and as a ligament of national unity. Today, several generations after it was put into shape, it is still a living document, meeting the needs, as it always has done, of a great, growing, powerful, technologically advanced, self-governing republic. In duration, flexibility, and underlying democratic wisdom, there is nothing quite like it anywhere else in the world!"

Such a great document is deserving of our study and consideration. We are all aware of the benefits afforded by our system of government, but too many of us fail to realize our duties as citizens to participate more actively in its operation. Let the public library provide you with a book which will help you to rediscover the significance and importance of our Constitution.

Safety News

WATCH THOSE LIGHTS

With school once again open, your attention is called to section 533 of the California Vehicle Code regarding stopping for a school bus while it is loading or unloading school children.

Recent cases show where several children were injured, one fatally, by motorists who sped past busses while displaying the flashing red lights.

It is pointed out that when the red warning lights on a school bus are in operation, all vehicles approaching a school bus from either direction must come to a halt and remain standing until the lights go out.

The law requires the bus driver to operate the lights only when he stops to take on or discharge youngsters who must cross the road or highway. If the bus stops to pick up or let out school children who live on the same side of the road, then the driver is not permitted to flash his red lights and other vehicles may proceed normally.

A school bus ride is one of the safest ways to travel in California, but the children face their greatest danger crossing the road before getting on or after getting off the bus.

If drivers will stop when they near a school bus with flashing red lights, then even that danger can be minimized.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

While vacationing from the column two weeks, I shall be working on the Community Concert drive. Will also take time to go down to the SEA-VUE to see "On the Waterfront," one of 1954's important films, certain to be honored by the Academy Awards.

Many Post-Korea Vets May Still Enroll In School

Many post-Korea veterans who have unused Korea GI Bill training certificates may use them to go to school this fall under a new law, even though the certificates show the veterans' cut-off dates have passed.

Veterans' Administration said the veterans affected are those who will have been separated from service three years or less by the time the fall school terms begin.

If these veterans wish to enroll this fall, they may present their old certificates and a photostat or certified copy of their separation papers to the approved school of their choice, VA said.

This extension of time to begin Korea GI training is provided by a new law, enacted August 20, 1954, which gives post-Korea veterans three years from the date of discharge to begin Korea GI training.

Previously, veterans separated before August 20, 1952, had to begin by August 20, 1954. Others had to years from separation in which to get started.

Each VA certificate for GI education or training contains the veteran's cut-off date. Ordinarily, the certificate would not be good for a veteran who wants to start after that date.

But, VA explained, it had issued many certificates to veterans before the law was changed. Some of these show that veterans' cut-off dates had passed.

Even so, VA said, they are still good so long as the veterans start GI training with three years after the date they left the armed forces.

FOURTEEN GIVE BLOOD RECENTLY

Fourteen Daly City-Colma area residents were credited with giving blood recently by the Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank.

Carl A. Verhaagen gave his fifth pint of the life-saving fluid.

Donating for the second time were William M. Leslie, Kenneth E. Gollehon and Mrs. Clarence L. Lahr.

First-time donors were: Mrs. Katherine S. Toner, Mrs. J. A. Dinsmore, Henry Sanchez, Raymond R. Torres, Glenn Penn, Paul Viole, Mrs. Paul Viole, Botchie Bertucci, Mrs. George Bertucci and Clarence E. Lahr.

San Francisco's water system has four impounding reservoirs in the Bay region—Calaveras, Crystal Springs, San Andreas and Pilarcitos.

Schools and training establishments throughout the country have been informed by VA that they may accept these certificates, and allow veterans to enroll under the Korean GI Bill.

But they must make sure, from a veteran's separation paper, that he is beginning training within three years from his discharge date. This paper—DD Form 214—always includes the date of separation.

If a veteran cannot locate his separation form, he may apply to his VA Regional Office for a new certificate for Korean GI training. The new certificate will contain his cut-off date under the new law.

The recent extension in the cut-off date applies to all post-Korea veterans separated from service after August 20, 1951. Those separated before that date must have begun training by August 20, 1954.

CONG. YOUNGER PRAISES COUNTY MANUFACTURERS

Congressman J. Arthur Younger has praised the Manufacturers Association of San Mateo county for its program of county-wide organization of established industry.

Younger was guest speaker last week at the regular monthly luncheon of the association members at Uncle Tom's Cabin in San Bruno.

"San Mateo county will benefit from the organization of manufacturers on a county-wide basis," Younger declared. "The industries have become a vital part of San Mateo county's economy, providing thousands of jobs and the important tax base for a prosperous and healthy community."

It was the first meeting of the manufacturers following the summer vacation and served to launch the drive to bring into the group manufacturers from central and southern San Mateo county.

The manufacturers had formerly been known as the Manufacturers Association of South San Francisco. Its charter has been changed to allow for county-wide membership, which according to association president J. J. Canavari, is expected to number 200 within a year.

Introduced to the members for the first time since his appointment a month ago was Dick Harris of Redwood City, new executive-secretary of the association.

A bright picture of San Mateo county's economic condition was presented by Younger who told the manufacturers there is virtually no unemployment in San Mateo county.

CONGRESS VOTES TO DEDICATE WEEK FOR NURSES

The 83rd Congress, in the closing days of the overtime session just concluded, voted to dedicate the week of October 11 to 16 as "National Nurse Week," according to word received here today by Miss Evelyn Crowley, President 37th District.

The Congressional resolution dedicated the week, Oct. 11-16, to the nation's registered professional nurses as a tribute to their services in promoting the national health and welfare.

"The registered nurses of this area, and of the entire state, are proud that our representatives in Washington should pay this signal honor to 'RN's,'" Miss Crowley said. "The nurses of District No. 37, as part of this special week, will do all possible to acquaint the people of this community with the role of the professional nurses."

DC CENTER ACTIVITY PLAYS MAJOR ROLE

The Daily City recreation department has rung down the curtain on the final act of the 1954 summer program.

The tremendous enthusiasm and active response with which the local youngsters of Daly City accepted the program marks it as probably the most successful ever to be presented in Daly City. Literally thousands of children took advantage of the wide variety of activities offered them. The War Memorial community center on Mission street played a major role in making the program a success. In addition to the usual activities provided at the center three new ones were incorporated into the program and all enjoyed wide popularity. The recreation department tumbling group was initiated for the first time and grew until the number reached 44 members, meeting two times weekly. The youngsters learned a wide variety of individual and dual stunts. This capable group was able to master forward and backward rolls, shoulder and side rolls, handstands, double forward roll and hand stands. The more talented youngsters of the group were also able to master the front somersaults and fundamental elements of the difficult backflip. Group stunts such as pyramid building and the centipede walk were also performed with amazing proficiency. Outstanding members of the tumbling group were Paul Gioni, Don Miller, Roger Stahl, Jerry Morgan, Bruce Egan and Don and Ernie Montoya. Interest in tumbling has developed to such an extent that there is a strong possibility that this activity will be continued during the school months.

Boxing Successful

Boxing, the second of the newly organized activities, probably enjoyed more success this summer than any other portion of the community center's program. Sixty Daly City youngsters participated in the daily workouts. The two evening boxing shows held at the community center were a mute tribute to the activities success. The first show which was a recreation fund was attended by almost 200 people and netted over $100. The action-packed bouts kept the appreciative audience cheering throughout the evening. The big emergency polo drive boxing show which was presented on August 27 was the climax of the summer boxing program. Three hundred fifty attended the show and contributed $300 to the polo fund. Fifteen bouts were on the card and each one made up in enthusiasm for what it lacked in fistic talent.

Boxing, as far as the Daly City recreation department was concerned, and judging from the interest of both youngsters and adults, has earned a place in the regular program. Tentative plans include the formation of a boxing team comprised entirely of Daly City youngsters. The team will enter competition with other youth and boys organizations. The Hanna Boys Center of Sonoma is considering bringing its fine team to the community center in the near future.

Outstanding members of the Daly City team include Harry Sampson, heavy weight; Ray Rosa, lightweight; Ray Torres, middleweight; Lala Huntzman, middleweight; Bill Long, welterweight; Joe Stagnaro, welterweight; Ron Molina, welterweight; Bruce Lovazzano, featherweight; Don Rassmussen, featherweight; Matt Jones, bantamweight; Dennis Jefferson, bantamweight; and Don Mocino, light heavy. Other boxers in the paperweight class are Roger Stahl, Ernest Montoya, Ron Montoya, Willie Taylor, Paul Gioni, Don Miller, Frank Burger, Mike Burger, Sonny Hunsburger, Mike Brush and Billy Ellis.

Introduce Wrestling

Wrestling was the third activity introduced for the first time this summer. The youngsters who participated worked long and hard to become proficient in this difficult sport. Outstanding among the wrestlers were, Terry Fairchild, Bruce Egan, Bryan Egan and Tommy Wallace.

The regular activities at the community center enjoyed their usual success. The afternoon program which is devoted entirely to high school students was taken up with basketball from 1 to 3:30 p.m. George Miller, Ron Kalinan, Rich Wato, Bernie Milliron and Harry Miller were working out daily at this vigorous activity. From 3:30 to 5 p.m. recreation volleyball took the spotlight. Between 30 and 40 teenage boys and girls enjoyed this entertaining sport each afternoon. In addition to tumbling the morning program featured badminton, tetherball and basketball. Basketball was presented as a clinic in which the young hoopers received valuable instructions pertaining to the training fundamentals and strategy of the game.

Special Events

The youngsters who attended the community center were not necessarily limited to the facilities of the building in their quest for summer fun. The special events program under the excellent direction of Leslie Linhares provided the wide variety of outings and activities of any program throughout San Mateo county. Among the activities enjoyed by the youngsters were the Thornton Beach Hike, Zoo outing, trip to Morrison's Planetarium, the Bay excursion, Junior Olympics, vehicle day at Marchbanks, trip to skateland and the Marchbank carnival. The carnival which was organized in 1953 has reached such tremendous proportions that it now ranks as the No. 1 special event. This carnival, which included booths, games, costumes, prizes and the like, was attended by over 700 Daly City youngsters. The tentative plans for next year's carnival are aimed at making the 1000 mark in attendance. The Daly City amateur hour, another of the annual events, was much more successful than previously anticipated. Sixteen fine acts presented an entertaining show. First in the talent contest went to Larry Kane and Gordon Tyndyco, with their rendition of Via Condios on the steel and spanish guitars. Due to the excellent performance of this year's participants next year's show is sure to be a big hit.

The Daly City recreation department is now busily analysing the concluded program in an effort to bring to the people of Daly City an even greater program in 1955.

Youngsters Greet Arts, Crafts With Much Enthusiasm

The arts and crafts program for the summer was a tremendous success. It was climaxed by an exhibit held at the War Memorial Community Center. The enthusiasm the children encouraged by the instructors was one of guiding factors in the variety of the projects completed this summer.

The classes for older children have been conducted on a workshop basis, where each child could choose a project of his own liking from several types of projects. The younger children were given a different project each meeting to help them develop their skills.

The staff has consisted of Ina Bryant, director, and her assistants, Miss Lorine Pindjak, Miss Roberta Taylor and Miss Jo Anne Gerdohn. Miss Pindjak conducted the classes for the younger children, while Miss Bryant conducted the classes for the older children.

Utilize Scraps

One of the purposes of the program was to teach the children to utilize scraps and everyday materials found in the home. Many of the children were delighted to find that nice things could be made from these scraps.

The culmination activity of the summer was the art show. The children have worked very hard and their projects looked almost professional. Peter Tarrell, David Roney, Marianne Santiago won first prizes for their paper mache animals. Barbara Balbi won a second prize and Eddie Giordano won a first prize for their piggy banks. Linda Giordano won second prize for her turtle bank. In clay work Terry Long won a first prize, and Paul Gioni won a second prize.

Beautiful Jewelry

Some of the girls made some beautiful jewelry from clay. Marianne Santiago won a first prize for her earring and pin set, Veronica Fischer and Marilyn Firpo won second prizes. Rosalie Santiago won a first prize for her weaving and making key chain. Ed Baker, and Lind Howes got second prizes for their good work. Diane Bertelli, Pat Weeden, and Marsha Ojakian won prizes for their very fine bracelets.

Jon Alexander and Frank Bellante won prizes for some very beautiful work making belts. Betty Rider and Carol Albert did some very colorful pictures with colored paper. Linda Giordano and Donna Almada also made some fine pictures.

Among the other prize winners in the various categories of picture making were, Cheryl Kruger, Sharon Carr, Laurie Convers, Kathy Valianda, Linda Larios, Dennis Santiago, and Marilyn and Lauren Tripa.

Amazing things can be done with sawdust, as was proven by Cynthia Trapani, Irene Ailes, Wallace Lobel who were awarded ribbons for their sawdust puppet heads.

Of the realistic life sized self portraits which decorated the side wall at the exhibit those made by Priscilla Farrell, Carol Lewis, Jane Alexander attracted special attention.

KIDS START FROM SCRATCH IN ARCHERY, FOLK DANCING; SHOW IMPROVEMENT

The summer archery program of the recreation department was under the leadership of Beverly Raab and Beverly Hamilton.

Some of the special events which were held were a balloon shoot, and an animal shoot which were the high points of the last two weeks of Archery.

If one had to choose from the 250 to 300 children that took part in the program the outstanding archers were:

Frankfort: Manuel Villa, Tommy Waddell.

Jefferson High School: Butch Miller, Ted Saumer, Sonny Martinez, Dave Duggan.

The directors got a great deal of satisfaction from seeing the steady improvement of these fine archers. The archers themselves enjoyed the sport more and more as the summer progressed, as they were able to hit the target with greater frequency.

In the nine weeks that this program was in existence the following were the various things that were done:

1. The program started off with group instruction and careful attention being given to the various skills of archery. Each child was checked as to the correct form before he was able to shoot by himself.

2. After the fundamentals were taught a great deal of time was spent on individual help by the instructors and continued practice by the participants.

3. During the second week a bulls-eye club was started and only those who hit a bulls-eye during this week joined the club. Approximately 40 to 50 children were able to belong.

4. So that all those who were participating could see if they showed any improvement scoring and overall averages were kept. In this each child tried to improve his own score.

5. About the fifth week a ladder tournament was started. Each child could only advance by challenging some one above him in the Sandra Sims, Janice Stroud, Dorcen O'Neil and Wendy Warfield to make some striking notebooks and scrapbook covers.

Donna Lee Pusatera, Mary Lee Mates and Janet O'Neil found that they could make dainty jartop gardens from tiny flowers and rocks set in plaster to Paris.

Award winning candlestick holders were decorated by Diane Bertelli, Richard Garibaldi and Pat Weeden.

Plaques and trays, which won great favor, were woodburned by Lloyd Echals, Stanley White, Charles Micelli and David Iwashashi.

Other excellent entries were: a Ubangi mask by John Moore, plastic coin purses by Robert Murry and Carol Brown, and aluminum plaques by Sue Ann Kanan and Bobby Bryan.

Numerous other prizes were awarded to deserving children whose work showed great progress.

All of the children derived great benefits from the program this summer and are eagerly looking forward to next year's Arts and Crafts.

ladder-winning and trading positions.

6. At the conclusion of the ladder tournament the top four in the various parks were taken to the Jefferson High School football field to compete in an ALL-CITY TOURNAMENT. Manuel Villa and Jim Wilson brought home first place to Frankfort Park, while Butch Miller and Ted Saumer took second for Jefferson High and Wayne and Harold Gordon took third for Jefferson Elementary.

7. In the eighth week an Animal shoot was held. The directors cut out colored paper animals and these animals were placed liberally all over the target face. The participants could only become "BIG GAME HUNTERS" if they hit everyone of the animals.

8. The last event of the program was a balloon shoot. Balloons were put on the target and the balloon in the bulls-eye was the only one that was frequently hit.

Folk Dancing

The folk dance unit consisted of very simple dances at the beginning and carried on through more complicated ones. The dances that were enjoyed the most were La Rapa, Hokej Pokoj and Korobuska. The demand being more for Archery more time was naturally given to this sport.

Thanks goes to the different park directors and those who helped our program go over so well. Thanks also goes to the children who proved that they could participate and handle themselves as a group in such a sport.

Raah Hamilton handled the folk dancing.

Summer Activities At Edgewood Start With Beach Party

By Thelma Steele

Summer activities for the Edgewood Playground got off to an enthusiastic start with children from this park joining the other Daly City playgrounds to attend the hike and beach party at Thornton Beach. Favored by good weather, plenty of weiners and soda pop everyone enjoyed themselves. Excursion to the S. F. Airport, July 7th and outing to the Zoo July 9th, left everyone who attended well satisfied. Carnival Day at Marchbanks Park July 14th, a yearly event, was talked about by everyone, especially because of the success of the Mystery House, which brought many a child to tears of fright. On July 21st one of the best managed group of children enjoyed the Bay Excursion and walk to Aquatic Park where they ate their lunches. Jerry and Jimmy Franco invited their mothers who enjoyed the trip just as much as the children. Edgewood Park, July 30th, made a good showing at the Junior Olympics, winning many ribbons. Although the team was small their spirit was great and all are looking forward to next year. Roller Skating, August 3rd, one of the high points of the program, was fun for all ages, and after spending 1½ hours at Playland everyone was ready to come home. Speed lovers had fun August 15th, Vehicle Day at Marchbanks Park. Edgewood again made a good showing, coming home with first Flexie Race prize, won by Jimmy Doo, second coaster race prize, won by Butch Davies, and second place prize won by Jimmy Caruso in the bicycles race.

Due to the new equipment acquired at the beginning of this summer it was made possible for the children to participate in many

Excursion Opens Frankfort Summer

By George Schaudra

The summer program at Lincoln was ushered in by the recreation department's annual excursion to Thornton beach. The hike was long, and there were many tired feet before the day was done, but the great enthusiasm for this event makes this excursion one that is looked forward to by the boys and girls of Lincoln.

The introduction of a new event this year, the outing to San Francisco Airport, was greeted with great exclamations by Barbara Bisset, Virginia Newman, Ray Bermudez, Anthony and Louis Guildry.

The tour, conducted by a representative of the United Airlines, was highlighted by a tour through a Boeing Stratocruiser, where the boys and girls took an imaginary trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

Biggest Fish

Lincoln Playground, and specifically Tom Parrish, stole the honors at the Fishing Day at Lake Merced. Tom was awarded first prize of $5.00 for the largest fish caught that day. Incidentally, Michael Goulden, of Lincoln, won the honors last year. Others from Lincoln who braved the foul weather, and made the trip were: Ray Blair, Vickie Caine, Vivian Caine, Susan Everett and Bob Rich.

The recreation department was fortunate this year in that we were favored with a beautiful day on our annual Bay Excursion. The good old excursion boat was bulging at the seams with boys and girls from Daly City. The Roller Skating party, one of the most enjoyable excursions of the summer, was attended by Barbara Bisset, Virginia Neumann, Ray Bermudez, Adele and Gail Sanders and Mrs. Sanders, Carol and Donald Sandilto, Marilla Bisset, Sharon Kruse, Marilyn Lasky, Mary Salmon, Darrell Luna and Bob Rich. Although bumps and bruises were plenty, they were soon forgotten when the boys and girls attended the many rides and concessions at Playland. The event was climaxed by the gathering of all the playgrounds at the Fun House.

The annual zoo outing was one excursion that was wholeheartedly attended by Lincoln playground. Although the day was foggy, Lincoln's faithful made the trip in sheer delight in contemplating the fun to be had by all at the zoo. Of course, the spitting baboon was the delight of all.

Morrison Trek

The outing to Morrison Planetarium, another new event in the summer program, was greatly enjoyed by those who attended. Lincoln playground was represented by Sally Parish, Diane Ciolino, Cheryl Shaffley, Janet and Jane Sturdevant, Carol Ciolino, Tom Parish, Rita McCarthy and Larry Carrigill. This great educational excursion is one trip that will be looked forward to next summer by the many that made the trip this summer.

Now that summer vacation is over, and the excursions are behind us, we of the recreation department hope that all of you have had an enjoyable summer, and you will be back with us next summer for an even greater time.

games and contests at the playground. Bowling and shuffle board, regardless of weather, has been used by all ages with great enthusiasm. Prizes were given to Victor Kulick and Virginia Schroeder, surprise winners, July 15th, in the tetherball contest. A funny bike and funny hat contest, July 22nd, brought out all types of bicycles decorated with great care. Albert Seigant walked away with the bicycle honor while his sister Doris showed her skill at making a funny hat. At

HOBBIES INTRODUCED TO DC SUMMER PROGRAM WITH GRATIFYING RESULTS

The Daly City recreation department introduced "hobbies" to the summer program. During the first week a few problems arose, but they soon were eliminated. The remaining eight weeks ironed out any other difficulties and went by rather smoothly.

Directors Paul Sobol and Stan Feldman had reason to be pleased when one saw the beautiful work turned out by their classes. The children showed eagerness in helping clean up, in organizing, and in behaving extremely well; as they also did in making leather goods and plaques.

Quality Work

The overall picture of hobbies showed a considerable amount of good quality work done by the children. A grand total of 105 linear feet of one foot wide copper was made into plaques. In addition to this 170 feet were worked into plaques from a sheet metal state. Roughly, forty model airplanes and automobiles made in the course of the summer were done in such a manner that the builder could well be proud of his craftsmanship. We are proud to report that in leather craft approximately 20 belts were made and tooled; about the same number of coin purses were fabricated; and other miscellaneous items such as knife sheaths, holsters, key cases, comb cases, and ladies' accessory cases were made.

It was rather interesting to note that the trend of activity was selected mainly by the children. At first, the simplest form of activity was engaged and then as the children began to progress and show mastery of one activity, their interest would change to more complex crafts.

Many of us will have an opportunity to see the products of this year's hobbies class, and certainly all projects can be regarded as a source of compliments for the maker. Foremost of the better projects in the warrior areas are the galloping stallion tooled by Richard Montoya, the gurl holster tooled by Florence Benedetti, which incidentally can be seen gracing the hip of her father, sergeant Rico Benedetti of the Daly City Police Force.

Model Making

In our model making activity no one outstanding project can be chosen. All of the following must be congratulated for their fine work: Richey Landus, Larry Noll, Rodney Village, Donald Village and Jerry Benedetti, all of whom were very loyal and persistent in completing their models.

Also doing work as well as those mentioned above, but couldn't quite finish their models in time for the ART SHOW were Mike Silberstein and John Farber.

Along with the many copper and aluminum tooled objects done by Richard Montoya, there were outstanding examples of tooling done by Gilbert Goodin, Diane Floressi, Judy Reed, Penny Silbers.

So to conclude and summarize the summer's program in our department by the making of your child's summer a more industrious one. We would like to thank you the citizens and parents, for your support and enthusiasm which enabled us to develop this program. All of us sincerely hope that you feel the same satisfaction and sense of accomplishment which we and the children have derived from our efforts this past summer.

Attendance Shows Marchbanks Park Program Popular

If attendance is any indication of success then the summer program of the Daly City recreation department must register high. Each year more and more youngsters have taken advantage of recreational facilities offered. Steadily the program has advanced and broadened to engulf all age groups. Great strides have been taken and the field is open for still greater enrichment.

This summer found Marchbanks Park's three levels in full swing. Although the baseball program on Jefferson diamond had taken away many of our old timers there were new ones to take their place. A day never passed that baseball in one form or another wasn't played. It was interesting to watch the development of these midget ball players. Under the coaching of their managers who gave of their time so unselfishly great strides were made.

The lower field proved a wonderful place for the archery classes. Under the excellent tutelage of Mrs. Beverly Rabb and Miss Bev Hamilton a host of youngsters were developed in future Robin Hoods.

Mid-Level Favorite

The middle level with its well-planned apparatus and well-kept lawn was the continual favorite of the mothers and their moppets. An older group daily worked out on the monkey bars and showed off their muscles.

The Special Events program, a perennial favorite, attracted large turnouts this summer. The program was inaugurated by a hike to Thornton beach. Fifty sturdy Marchbankers of all ages turned out to test their hiking abilities. Joe Perada, Mike Rayburn and Mike and A. J. Chrystal were toggled out from high boots to back packs. Once on the beach the kids headed for the surf like trained seals. Director Mike Sibitz acted as life guard dragging the overly adventurous back to safe ground. His task was done well although he was slightly wet and bedraggled on his return home.

A "Day at the Zoo" gave the younger age groups a chance to see the sights. Little Judy and Jimmy Crudo had the time of their lives on the merry-go-round. It was their first trip minus their new piggy bank table arrived a tournament was held July 20th, and the finalists, Linda Bridges, Butch Davies and Lorraine Williams were beaten by Stanley Kulick, who is still champion.

Now that the schools are opening soon we can say it has been a very enjoyable summer for all at Edgewood. Many new ideas were tried, this being a comparatively new park with a very good showing and our hopes are high for next year.

mothers and they stood up under the test admirably.

Although the Bay Excursion started out with poor weather and a change of schedule it ended a bang-up success. The captain treated the student sailors to an extra long trip.

The ship turned out to be the Harbor Queen. Vicky and Jim Hennessey and Tony Furger were intrigued by the foreign ships in dock. But Loretta Berg and Ann Cheatham's interest was captured by the boys in the bell-bottomed trousers.

Spills, Thrills

Spills, thrills and fast moving wheels were all to be seen at Skateland. Anthony Stagnaro had picked up so much speed that when he tried to stop short he couldn't. Another fast skater was Bob Grubb, who could also do some pretty fancy dance steps. Also doing some rather intricate motions of balance was Carl Jones.

Judy Lacher and Judy Hopman were able to glide by very smoothly while Matt Jones just went by. David Gardner and Bobby Goughly were able to say that they spent most of their time in a vertical position and Tabby Rasmussen was seen horizontally once.

Tommy Joyce insisted on going on the giant dipper alone, while Margaret Jones had director Bobbie Carroll go with her.

Favorable comments are still being heard about the Marchbank Penny Carnival. A fun-seeking group of 900 swarmed to the Carnival area on the middle level. Booths had been set up for the occasion through the courtesy of Joe Bloom and Don Massina. Without the freely given help of the neighborhood mothers Mrs. Stagnaro, Mrs. Kane, Mrs. Louise and Jo Crudo and Mrs. Waligora and youngsters such as Joe Crudo, Joan Malloy, Jones Kids, Ricky Craig and Anthony Stagnaro success would surely have been failure. It is people such as these that make pleasure out of work.

Vehicle Day wasn't in last summer's program, but this year as years previous the children really enjoyed themselves. All enjoyed entering or watching the watermelon eating contest. Hands behind backs and seeds and melon covering faces was quite a comical sight. Matt Jones and Bobby Smith won this race along with shooting pains in the abdomen. From the amount of cokes and hot dogs consumed we imagine both Matt and Bobby had company with the same ailment.

Ta'ent Abounds

If anyone ever doubted that the Daly City youths had talent and showmanship they should have been present at the Saturday night Amateur Hour. With only a day's notice the kids put on a show that was worthy of professionals. Guitarist Babe Kane and Gordon Tyndyco conquered their stage fright well enough to merit first prize. Complete confidence and talent unbowed were displayed in Al-len and Richard Maffel's playing and singing. A quartet of Hawaiian dancers led and taught by Sandra Fernandez changed the audience scorn to praise.

HIKE, PICNIC START OFF SKED AT FRANKFORT

By Lorraine Drake

To start the season off at Frankfort park there was the Thornton beach hike and picnic. Twenty boys and girls participated from Frankfort. The surf and the food was enjoyed by all.

Second was the outing to the S. F. Airport. Mary and Arlene MacDonald, Sandra Mulcahy, John and Raymond Kenny joined the group that went on this trip.

Next was the trip to the zoo where the newest additions, baby tigers, were seen by Manuel, Cecilia and Mary Ellen Villa. Mary and Arlene MacDonald, John and Raymond Kenny, Patsy and Michael Smyser especially enjoyed the merry-go-round. Richard, Frank, and Rose Mary Villa and Diane and Carolyn Smyser thought the "spitting monkey" the most memorable event. Sandra Mulcahy found the wading pool fascinating. Those who walked to Marchbank for the Carnival were John, Raymond and Michael Kenney, and Eric Noby. The "Mystery House" overwhelmed Diane, Carolyn, Michael and Patsy Smyser and Paulette Frazier. Mary and Arlene MacDonald filled themselves to the brim with hot dogs and ice cream.

Fishing Day

John and Raymond Kenny and Michael Smyser were the only three who were brave enough to rise early for the Fishing Day at Lake Merced. The San Francisco Bay Excursion is always a popular trip with the children. A real boat ride seems to beckon to their explorative natures. Participants in this event were James Nail, Nancy Kelly, Mary and Arlene MacDonald, Carol and Diane Smyser and Paulette Frazier. The Maritime Museum at Aquatic Park is also a well-liked place.

Jim and Anthony Guilly were Frankfort's only entrants in the Junior Olympic this year, but they did their best in competing with the other parks. The Skating Party at Skateland was a huge success. Ronald Bon-tempi, Diane and Carolyn Smyser, Patricia Weeden and Adrienne Arroyos looked like professionals on skates. Patsy Smyser and Marie Weeden were the smallest girls on the floor but managed to keep erect most of the time. Michael Smyser and Mary and Arlene MacDonald had fun trying the many rides at Playland.

David's Parade at Westlake summoned twenty boys and girls from Frankfort. Among these were Chuck Oliveira, Linda, Eddy and Miriam Larics, Jayne Ramey, Janet Schwarz and Marge and Marie Weeden. Charlene Smyser and Connie Larios entered the Miss Daly City contest.

A day at Golden Gate Park, viewing the museum, aquarium and Tea Garden was enjoyed by John, Raymond and Michael Kenny, and Mary MacDonald. They also experienced a trip to the moon at the Morrison Planetarium. Included in the activities offered at the playground are softball, tether ball, pinky, and football. The smaller children enjoy coloring, tag games, and apparatus. During the middle of the summer archery began at Frankfort. Manuel Villa, Bert Rodriguez and Tommy Waudel made top places in the tournament. At the city-wide tourney at Jefferson, Manuel Villa placed first. Frankfort is rather proud of this honor, especially since Frankfort is one of the smallest playgrounds in Daly City.

Although the weather was not perfect, Vehicle Day at Marchbank was a success. Mary and Arlene MacDonald, Patsy Smyser, and Marge and Marie Weeden truly enjoyed the delicious hot dogs and soda, while John, Raymond and Michael Kenny entered the watermelon eating contest and tried their best to eat their piece of watermelon first. The children also enjoyed Be Be the clown who performed at the playground.

BASEBALL STOCK TAKES UPTURN THIS SUMMER

Baseball stock took a sharp turn upward in the summer of 1954 as the Daly City recreation department began the first Annual Baseball Leagues.

The baseball leagues thus formed took on the shape of three different divisions. In the first league, called the Midget League, all boys between the ages of 8-10 were allowed to compete. Their were six teams. Winning the league's Championship were the Daly City Midgets managed by Lowell Creighton Sr.

In all, a total of over 165 baseball games were played in Daly City this summer, and a total of 375 players saw action each week. League officials were Lou Martin, Baseball Commissioner, and protest board members Herman Kalinin, Ed Cavagnaro, Ed Mosconi. The umpires were, Dan Bertelli, Rich Wato, Lowell Creighton, John Belforte, George Schaudra, Al Fignone, and Rich Guisti.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

The DAY finally arrived! The doors opened and all the youngsters big and little left for school in a variety of moods. Of course the first day is always exciting so all were ready on time. The little ones skipped off to school smiling and happy while the teen-agers strolled leisurely on their way. For them, there ain't no hurry. All in all it was the first day of quiet since school let out in June. Fact is it was so quiet I had to put the radio on for a little noise just to make it sound more natural.

LET'S GO ON A PICNIC! Summer with its vacation and days of relaxation have left us but there is still one more BIG event yet before we finally take to watching TV on Sundays. It is the OLPH PARISH PICNIC Sponsored by the Men's Club of the Parish and from the plans that I have heard a grand time will be had by all who plan to attend. The committee has been working very hard to make the day a lot of fun for one and all so the thing to do is dust out the picnic basket and get the lunch ready and take off on Sunday, Sept. 19th, for the Roger Reynolds Park. Just drive down the El Camino to five points and follow the OLPH arrows for 2.1 miles after that and join all your neighbors in a day's fun.

Items of Interest

LOST! One blue dudge bird has tucked his birdseed under his wing and flown out the door of his home on Flournoy street. He left last Sunday afternoon and is very much missed by his owner MRS. LYNN BOSKEY who would very much like to have him back. He is very tame, will eat out of your hand or mouth, sit on your head and not only answers to the name of CHEE CHEE but also says his name. Fact is that is all that he does say. If any of the neighbors in that area see him they can get in touch with Lynn at PL. 5-0902 during the day or at PL. 6-1856 after 6 p.m. She will be most happy to hear from you.

Having a birthday last week was MRS. MARY CASTELLANO of Santa Cruz avenue. Being the mother of four daughters she was in for a nice surprise when she arrived home for dinner on that day of days. A nice family dinner was waiting for her with presents from one and all to add to the occasion. Happy birthday, MARY, from all of the folks, too.

Some of the folks are still getting in those last few days of summer vacation: MR. and MRS. AL MACHADO are among the late travelers. They are in no special hurry and have no special destination but they do have two weeks to rest, relax and have fun and that is just what they plan to do.

When one is waiting for members of their family to arrive the days really do drag on. MRS. MAY BEECHER of Los Olivos avenue has been on pins and needles every day looking for a nice new blue car to drive up with her sister and family who are on their way from Michigan. After spending a few days with May and Al they plan on going on to San Diego where they will make their home.

Now our youngsters do grow up. Two young ladies who not so very long ago were just little tykes are now getting new evening gowns in preparation to being the hostess for the evening at an important banquet. MISS SHARON CASAD and MISS VIRGINIA SCOTT are two of the four young ladies who will be hostesses at the banquet given by the Theta Rho and Rebecca Lodges on Sept. 18th. The banquet will be open to the public and one and all are invited to attend. The place to go is Odd Fellows Hall on 7th street. It will be held in the Memorial Hall on the 3rd floor and they hope to see many of the folks there.

MR. and MRS. WHEELER of San Jose avenue have packed their grips, checked the family car, gotten out the road maps and are off on a vacation that will take them across the whole United States. Of course they will see the Grand Canyon and many other points of interest before returning home to let us know where they have been. Have fun folks.

MRS. WILMA SMITH of Gambetta street is very happy this past week. Her company arrived. Visiting the Smiths are her sisters MRS. ELIZABETH TAYLOR and MRS. MARY HANSON.

It is always nice to see members of ones family after years of separation.

SERVICEMEN

One expects many kinds of casualties when one is in the service but SeaBee BUZ PANDISCIO of the U. S. Navy really has had it as the saying goes. While stationed in Chicago before leaving for Treasure Island he got bitten by a mosquito. Believe it or not his hand was so badly infected that he came very near to losing it. At last reports he is now doing fine and will soon be able to take off for his new station somewhere in the Marianas Islands.

Staff Sgt. TONY HENESELY of the U. S. Air Force stationed at Okinawa has all the plans ready for his family to come over and stay with him. There is just one little hitch to his plans and that should happen very soon now. Then MARY and her two children will finally get to spend some time with Tony even if it is in Okinawa. One has to be very proud of the youngsters nowadays when they go to such lengths to maintain a home and keep a family together.

A 2/c HAROLD "SKIP" AMES finally caught up with his correspondence and I got a letter from him. He likes it and according to him has the life of Riley. He is a radio operator and there seems to be not too much duty time and as his base is a large one lots of recreation to keep him busy during off duty hours.

NEWS AND VIEWS

One young man has really had the vacation to end all vacations. HAROLD HUTCHINGS of Washington street left last June 28th for a visit with his aunt in Pennsylvania. After spending a month there he was met by another aunt and uncle, MR. and MRS. AL CAMERON and cousin, SONNY, of Florida who used to be residents of our town. They took Harold by car to Washington, D.C. where he was shown the Capitol, the White House, Mount Vernon and all the historical places that one reads about in history books. After leaving there he motored on to Florida where he spent time at Miami Beach, saw the Everglades and then spent the rest of the vacation with the Camerons who have taken THE RECORD all these many years that they have resided in Florida just so they wouldn't lose contact with the home folks. Harold is on his way home now and has probably learned more history in this one summer than in all the years he has been going to school. A hello to TINA & AL from all the home town folks and keep letting us hear from you.

That very energetic little boy down the street from me who managed to have so much fun for Sept. 13th. Little BOBBY MILLER of Los Olivos avenue is now one year old and has great plans for his second year of life. Mother SHIRLEY is just keeping her fingers crossed and hopes she can stay one jump ahead of him.

Just to keep the folks posted on our little friends GINGER WALTON I'm glad to be able to tell you that she is now taking nourishment by mouth instead of tube. She is able to have visitors also which helps. One of the nicest things that I have heard concerning one of the neighbors was told to me last week. Many of us sometimes forget to send the card which we intend to. This neighbor took the trouble to get on the bus and go to the Community Hospital and walk all the way from the bus to the hospital just to spend a little time with GINGER. Why is this such an item? Well, to begin with the lady, known to all of us, MISS NORA WATTS of Los Banos avenue, is almost completely blind and yet she is able to see more with her heart than most of us with our two good eyes. There are many more long weeks ahead for GINGER in the hospital so NOW how about that card?

Home from their vacation at Boulder Creek are the GIAMMO-BASER-TONY, RUTH and GINGER. Tony is now back at Jeff where is one of the physical education teachers and Ruthie is hard at work taking it easy for the first time in a long time. She has retired as an employee of THE RECORD where she served us for so long and it is good to be home according to her. Little GINGER has started to kindergarten and a more excited little girl never was seen.

The Mother's Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School held their first meeting last week with President CATHERINE RICCI presiding. Many points of interest were brought up during the meeting and discussed to the satisfaction of all the members. There will be many activities coming up during the coming term and any and all mothers are invited to attend the meetings. Fact is you don't have to have a child currently going to the school to be a member—just have the welfare of the school and it's children at heart is all that is required for membership.

Well, folks, that is just about it for this week. With all the events planned for the coming months there will be lots of news so just pass it on to me. The phone is still PL. 5-6482 and I'm always glad to hear from the new neighbors and friends as well as the old ones. Just give me a ring and I'll be waiting to hear from you. Until next week then—Bye now.

District Prexy Visits Lake Merced Auxiliary

President Anita Woods welcomed 12th District President Myrtle Klock as she inspected the Ladies Auxiliary to the V.F.W. Lake Merced Post 9921 last Tuesday evening at the Broadmoor community center.

Among the honored guests were: Marilyn Remmerford, president Shoreview Memorial Auxiliary; Mary Rudd, president, San Mateo Santa Clara Counties Council; Eve Zewicki was initiated into the Auxiliary.

A highly successful social was held last Saturday evening. Future plans include a dance, picnic and apron sale.

Dave Haaland Now Home On Furlough

Dave Haaland, son of Mae Haaland, 178 Wyandotte avenue, is currently home on a 21-day furlough after completing boot camp at San Diego with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Haaland is now a Pfc. in the Corps.

A graduate of Jefferson High school, Haaland enlisted in the Marines a few days after completion of school last June.

His mother is employed in the office of Pete Markovich, local insurance agent.

Old Glory Post 2044 Honors Scout Troop

Boy Scout Troop 63 was honored by Old Glory Post 2044, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Ladies Auxiliary last Friday evening at the Little Italy hall in Colma.

Auxiliary President Josephine Valente presented Scoutmasters Bill Bradshaw and Bob Burns with an American flag in behalf of the post and the auxiliary.

Merit badges were presented to deserving scouts, and the troop held a drill and dress inspection.

After the activities, the Ladies Auxiliary served refreshments, including a cake with the troop insignia.

Woodrow PTA Plans Faculty Reception

Teachers and parents will become better acquainted when the Woodrow Wilson PTA holds a faculty reception on Tuesday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the school's multi-purpose room.

Mrs. Hahn will introduce the teachers to the parents. All parents are invited to attend, according to Mrs. M. Kerekes, Woodrow Wilson PTA publicity chairman.

Plans for the forthcoming bazaar and salvage drive were discussed at the meeting of the executive board of the Woodrow Wilson PTA last Tuesday night.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Forest Cunningham.

Stella Jensen Heads Demos For Younger

Appointment of Mrs. Stella Jensen, Clark and D streets, Colma, as North County Chairman of Democrats for Younger was announced this week by Dan Min-to, general chairman of the citizens committee for the re-election of Congressman J. Arthur Younger to the 84th Congress.

Mrs. Jensen has been active in the education field in this city for the past 30 years. She is the president of the San Mateo County School Board Association and past president of the 17th district PTA.

Her community activities and interests include many other fields of endeavor. She is a member of the North County Council of Girl Scouts and has been active in scout activities for many years.

Mrs. Jensen also served as a member of the board of directors of the United Crusade and County blood bank.

Merced Area Singers Add Voices To "Men of Note"

More than fifteen men living in the Lake Merced area added their voices Monday evening to the first meeting of the "Men of Note" '54-'55 season.

Men of Note is the local male chorus which organized three years ago to sing once a week for fun and relaxation. Under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Jacobs, 220 Cardenas avenue, the 40-man group has since gained prestige and considerable fame as a very successful community project.

In celebration of the large turnout which will increase the membership, the newly elected officers of the group invited everyone to Mrs. Jacobs' home for refreshments.

Men of Note meets at 7:30 p.m., Mondays, at the Westlake School of Music, 95 So. Mayfair avenue, Daly City, near the Westlake Shopping Center. New members are invited. Voice training unnecessary. Phone PL. 5-5159 or JU. 4-8135 for further information.

First Annual Flower Show Set For October

Daly City's first annual flower show will be presented by the Daly City Garden club on October 3 at the local community center, announced Mrs. C. M. Yohn, club president, today.

All persons in the area interested have been asked to contact Mrs. Yohn at PL. 5-5580 for entry blanks.

The free admission floral show will take place from 1 to 9 p.m. Competition will be in the amateur classification only.

Village Notes

By Martha Finney

HI THERE! Mothers breathe a sigh of relief as children start back to school. . . . Speaking of school. . . .

HERE AND THERE . . . There is a happy teacher at the 87th Street school this week. Seems Mrs. Eleanor Carle just became a new grandmother.

WASHINGTON . . . Congratulations to the Raymond Duste's who celebrated their 10th anniversary on September 16th.

Bill and Margaret Hughes and daughter Kathy have just returned from a three week visit to the home of Margaret's parents.

MIDWAY . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ron Schmidt and children Larry and Linda are home after a weeks stay in Sonoma.

Last week Cindy Travinsky was seven years old and she celebrated with a party. Attending were Susie Porter, Diane Rasmussen, Karen and Marilyn Mattson, Paula and Judy Hershberg, Linda Ciriani, Linda Parks, Carol Nyberg, Nancy Blount, Janice Behlow and Karen Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Saper have just returned from two weeks spent in Lake County.

We will be losing neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Yale Friedlander and children Brad and Carin who are moving to Texas.

FOOTHILL . . . Speaking of Texas, Miss Loren Yearsley and her mother have just returned from two weeks vacation in Texas where they visited Mrs. Yearsley's sister.

Mrs. Warren Baker recently returned from Southern California where she spent all summer visiting relatives throughout the area.

GILMAN DR. . . . Recently one lucky child was picked to appear on T.V.'s Laugh Time. Much to her happiness, little Perky Gillespie was chosen. Her mother Mrs. Kenneth Gillespie tells me there is still room for more couples at the Folk Dancing on Friday nights and that high students are welcome so give her a call.

NIMITZ . . . Little Susie Dupont started to school in good shape. Just before school started Susie fell and had to have six stitches taken in her leg.

Mrs. Barbara Rasmussen and daughter Diane with Mr. and Mrs. Balcer have just returned from a short trip to Reno and Virginia City.

Congratulations to Diane Rasmussen who celebrated her eighth birthday with friends: Cindy Travinsky, Janice Behlow, Craig Abel, Nancy Blount, Jim and Susie Dupont, John Spedacci, Mary, Margy and Kathy Clark and Paula Beaumont.

SWEETWOOD . . . Marjorie Long celebrated her fifth birthday on September 8. Joining in on the festivities were her sisters, Linda and Janice, brother, Tommy, Carolyn Monks, Marianne McKinley, Heather Amans and Tommy Nye.

Garold Sherman of Iowa has been a recent guest of Evelyn and Larry Long. He is the nephew of Mr. Long.

MANILA . . . Police Chief Ray Savage went opossum hunting the other day when Mrs. Charles Nafe called him to catch one in her backyard. Yep! He caught it.

BEECHWOOD . . . Former resident Mrs. Dorothy Blank stopped in for a visit with Mrs. Jane Whitehead. Mrs. Blank now lives near Sunnyvale.

LOUVAIN . . . Mrs. Carroll Jones and son Kenneth from Lakemont visited several days with the Peter Rizzos.

Eileen Johnson has spent the past two months in Santa Cruz visiting Mrs. Al Brown. On her return she and her husband Ray spent a weekend in Reno, Virginia City and Carson City.

STONEFORD . . . Kay Mullen and children, Mike, John and Edyth recently returned from a two month visit to Iowa where her father resides. They visited the Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Painted Canyon and Yellowstone during the trip.

LARCHMONT . . . Son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. and Mrs. Jesse W. Tapp and granddaughter Elizabeth are guests of Rev. and Mrs. John A. Glasco.

O. L. P. H. Mothers Plan Xmas Bazaar

Initial plans were made for the O.L.P.H. Mothers Club Christmas Bazaar at the club's first meeting of the current semester last Friday.

The new president, Mrs. Catherine Ricci, greeted 135 members of the club. The first grade was awarded a prize for having the most mothers in attendance, closely followed by the kindergarten.

The Christmas bazaar has become an annual event of the mothers club. Most of the articles sold at the bazaar are made by the mothers.

The following chairmen were appointed for bazaar booths: Barbara Player and Dorothy Petersen, cake booth; Betty Traynor, dinner; Janet Fellman, surprise packages; Rose Rair, Barbara Parodi and Marie Krystofiak, children's booth; Jean Heaney and Evelyn Mossman, candy booth; Esther Nolan, sewing booth; Edna Cubie, grocery booth; and Dorothy Carrington, investments.

Merced VFW Holds Dance Sat. Night

The music of Maurice Wolohan, dance queen Margaret Coulter, and the assistance to a good cause will highlight the Veterans of Foreign Wars Lake Merced Post No. 9921 dance Saturday evening in the War Memorial building.

Proceeds of the dance will be used to aid youth activities in the area, according to Chairman Godfrey Woods.

The queen, Miss Coulter, 731 Thornhill drive, will reign over the dance and at midnight a U. S. Savings Bonds will be awarded. Lyle Cuykendall has arranged the refreshment room while Commander Dunn and ladies of the Auxiliary will handle the decorations.

Tickets will be on sale at the door and everyone is invited.

MRS. VI MURPHY NAMED NEW BPOA SECRETARY

Resignation of Dick De Berry, secretary, was accepted Thursday night at the regular meeting of the Broadmoor Property owners association.

Mrs. Vi Murphy, wife of the Daly City postmaster, will take over his position.

Selected to fill the vacancy on the board of directors was Palmiro Nalli, 812 Beather road.

It was announced at the meeting that pruning of Broadmoor's trees is now underway.

The board voted $50 be contributed to the polo fund.

The group also approved sponsorship of two student tickets for the Vista Grande Concert association.

Also appropriated was money to pay for cleaning up of the local playgrounds.

The association announced that new street signs with block numbers across the top would be installed.

RASHNESS AND TIMIDITY
Good driving calls for a happy medium between rashness and timidity, says the California State Automobile Association. Rashness blends easily into recklessness, with serious consequences, while timidity causes a driver to react in ways not expected by others on the road. Don't be afraid of other drivers—but do cultivate a healthy respect for them.

HERE AND THERE . . . A brief informal reception will be given the public school teachers following the morning service of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church affording an opportunity for parents to meet teachers.

Hear whispering that the W.A. of the Broadmoor community church are getting plans together for another of their big bazaars.

SALVAGE DRIVE . . . The Women's Association of the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church have announced that they will have a container at the top of the church ramp for anyone who wishes to leave bags of salvage for their drive on September 25th and 30th. Sunday school children will be given bags for this use next Sunday. Proceeds will go to the church fund.
So long, for now.

New Jeff Teachers Feted At Colma

New Daly City elementary and high school teachers were feted at a get-acquainted session by the Jefferson Elementary Coordinating Council on Wednesday at the Colma school.

Superintendents, principals, and coordinators were present to greet the new teachers and get better acquainted.

Members of the PTA helped prepare and serve the refreshments. The Coordinating Council expressed their thanks to the Daly City Garden club for their beautiful floral decorations, according to Mrs. Sanford Vickers.

The first meeting of new officers will be held on Monday at the Daly City Council chambers in the city hall on Wellington avenue.

International Homes On Tour September 25

"Cosmopolitan San Francisco at Home" is the theme of the house tour set for Saturday afternoon, September 25, sponsored by the YMCA-YWCA Buchanan Street Center. A benefit for the World Fellowship and Service Funds of the "Y" this tour plays up the international flavor of San Francisco with the selection of homes including Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, Negro and Caucasian.

The atmosphere of the "islands" featuring a lanai and an exhibit of Filipino folk art will be seen at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Jensen of 111 Miraloma drive. A western home distinguished by its tasteful inclusion of the best in Japanese architecture, an oriental garden, and the demonstration of flower arrangements will be featured at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Oyama, 427 35th avenue.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Clay, at 366 32nd avenue, is a remarkable example of owner-architect-decorator cooperation to achieve a spacious, attractive house and garden through good planning.

Included in this benefit house tour is the American-Chinese family home of Mr. and Mrs. Wing Ong, at 2297 Ellis street, individualized by oriental porcelains, figurines, and ancient musical instruments.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Herman's residence, located at 3461 Washington street, is an example of a smart town house, possessing charm and originality, with an interesting garden.

The homes will be open for the tour from 1 to 4 p.m. Following the tour, from 4 until 5:30 p.m., a tea will be served at the YMCA-YWCA Buchanan Street Center, 1530 Buchanan Street, where ten tables of many nations will feature traditional delicacies and a Japanese Doll Display will be shown.

This benefit for the World Fellowship and Service Funds of the "Y" is open to the public. Tickets ($1.25) are available at all "Y" centers.

Co-chairman for the event are Mrs. Pedro Gamatero and Mr. Frank Itaya. Committee assignments include Mrs. S. Marshall, Komper, selection of homes; Mrs. Clark Mahany, hostesses; Mrs. Ben Matsuda, flower arrangements; Mrs. Michi Onuma, publicity; Mrs. Washington Garner, tea; and Mrs. Norman Reider, tickets.

November Draft Call Set At 28

A total of 28 men will be called from the San Mateo county draft boards Nos. 57 and 58, which includes this area, during the month of November, the board revealed this week.

Officials of the draft boards have not received their quota call, but since the November call released by the defense department is the same monthly level held since July, board members plan to have 28 men in readiness.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS

WESTLAKE AREA

SEWAGE PUMPING PLANT AND FORCE MAIN

NORTH SAN MATEO COUNTY SANITATION DISTRICT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals or bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on October 11, 1954, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M. at the meeting place of the Board of Directors of North San Mateo County Sanitation District, 7328 Mission Street, Daly City, California, for the construction of a pumping plant and force main southwesterly of El Portal Way.

Said proposals or bids must be enclosed in sealed envelopes addressed "North San Mateo County Sanitation District, 7328 Mission Street, Daly City, California," and delivered to the Secretary of said District at the regular place of meeting, at or before 2:00 o'clock P.M. of said day, and endorsed "Proposal—Pumping Plant and Force Main."

Payments for said work to be done by the contractor shall be made in cash by said District to the contractor on itemized estimates duly certified and approved by the District Engineer and the Board of Directors, based on labor and materials performed and furnished by the contractor and incorporated into said work during the preceding month, but said District shall retain 10% of the amount of each such estimate, and the accumulation of said amounts so retained from said progressive payments will be paid to said contractor thirty-five days after the completion and acceptance of said work by said District Engineer and the Board of Directors.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the District, amounting to 10% of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said District, which shall be a corporate surety or by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said District, in case the bidder deposits the same does not, within ten (10) days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in the amount of 50% of the amount so bid, with sureties satisfactory to the said Board of Directors, and which shall be accompanied by a labor and material bond in a sum equal to 50% of the amount of said bid, under the provisions of Title 1, Division 5, Chapter 3 of the Government Code.

Notice is hereby given that on September 13, 1954, the said Board of Directors adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which the public work herein provided is to be done for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract, a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for a full and detailed description thereof.

The District reserves the privilege of rejecting any and all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bid or in the bidding.

Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of R. A. Klassen, 2221 Broadway, Redwood City, California, upon deposit of $10.00 therefor, which will be refunded upon the return of said plans and specifications in good condition within five days of the date set for opening bids.

Dated: September 13, 1954.

Jeff Grid Machine Unknown Quantity As Season Nears

RECORD 60 SHOW ON OPENING DAY; MOSTLY NEW FACES, SAYS McGRATH

Jefferson High school grid coach Joe McGrath returned for his third year with the varsity Monday, finding himself in what the coaching fraternity describes as an enviable position: He can't go anywhere but up.

Amateur football filberts and professional sports scribes have tabbed the Jefferson 1954 eleven to wind up somewhere near the bottom rung on the Peninsula Athletic league ladder of fame.

That's all right with Joe.

Now he and Assistant Coach Tony Giammona can start working in earnest with the out-sized crop of 60 potential pigskinners that turned up Monday, without the ogle of a pre-season build-up hanging over his head.

Quantity Good

In quantity, the Indians look good. Sixty is the largest turnout ever to tramp the Daly City gridiron. How many will lose interest and drop out is hard to say. But McGrath still should have a sizeable roster to work from, since in previous years 45 was about the average number of athletes reporting for first day exercises.

Quality-wise, McGrath is in the proverbial dark. Out of his 1953 crew that won seven games, lost two, and wound up third, only two of the originals will return. Among those lost via graduation last year were five gridgers who were placed on the All-PAL eleven—Ray Rosa, quarterback; Don Delbon and Jim Minor, ends; Jack Thur, unanimous selection as best guard in the circuit; and Joe Madden, center.

Valuable Regulars

Other valuable regulars departing were Wally Honeywell, Ed Gallagher, Bill Butler, Omar Grimes and Joe Earnshaw. Forming the nucleus of McGrath's split-T strategem this year will be Mike Cloonan, end, Al Figone, center, Richard Guisti, end, Del Hamman, right half, Jim Honeywell, left half, Harry Sampson, guard, and George Seger, tackle.

Only first string returnees are Sampson and Honeywell. Bob Grubb, 175-pound back up from the frosh-soph team, may fit into McGrath's backfield combo, possibly earning the signal calling role.

Another frosh-soph graduate, Don Wiesner, who scales 210 pounds and stands 6' 4", may fit into the center slot.

Seger The Giant
Seger will be the team's giant, registering one-eighth of a ton (250 pounds) of fast moving grid flesh.

A heady player, Seger could win a spot in the backfield. McGrath has been forming a mental picture of 250 pounds, moving at full speed and cracking through the opposing defense, but he won't say definitely whether Seger will be in the front wall or on the carrying end.

Overall, Coach Joe will have a team averaging about 10 pounds lighter than last year. His offense will be operated from the split-T, with a few variations on the single wing. Whether McGrath will emphasize his ground game or passing is hard to say, but the loss of Ray Rosa leaves a serious gap in the aerial artillery.

Know More Later
McGrath will know about his offensive after culling down the dozen or so backfield candidates and concentrating on their individual abilities.

With the season just upon him, the Daly City coach already has to worry about his first game, which comes up in 14 days, October 1, against an unknown quantity, Serra High school, of the CCAL.

The practice battle, only one of the season, will be held at the lo-

SARTO NIPPED ON BASE-LOADED TRIPLE IN 8th

A bases-loaded triple in the eighth heat handed Sarto A.C. their first loss in many a week as Guy Drugs of Oakland claimed a 5-2 decision.

The athletic club went into the sixth inning with a 2-0 advantage, which was nullified in the seventh after two Sarto errors.

Lennie Costa, Sarto third bagger, dropped a ripe pop fly to start the trouble. Next man up laid down a bunt single and Sarto backstop Lee La Rocca threw wild to third, allowing a pair of runs to tally.

In the eighth canto, with three men aboard, Sarto's Lowell Creighton had to be relieved because of a finger blister.

Don Henson stepped in, was working on a 1-1 count when the batter poled one into the center-field for a game-deciding triple.

While working for eight frames, Creighton gave up six hits, four walks, struckout eight and allowed two earned runs.

Henson was nicked for three runs, four hits, two walks and struckout four in his two innings stint.

The Athletic Club got six hits. Sarto meets an opponent yet to be named Sunday at Marchbanks, starting at 2 p.m.

COASTING DOWN GRADES

Coasting down a grade is an illegal and highly dangerous practice, warns the Public Safety Department of the National Automobile Club.

From March 1, 1951 to March 4, 1952, the United States existed as a government under a written instrument called "The Articles of Confederation."

Wing beats of insects vary with the species and may be as rapid as 350 strokes a second.

In regular league play, there'll be no bye weeks to pick up the loose edges. With Carlmont now in the circuit, league games will be on tap every week for nine weeks.

First league fracas is set for October 8 at 8 p.m., vs. San Mateo at the Burlingame field.

This marks McGrath's third year with the varsity of the eighth seasons he has worked at Jeff. In his initial year McGrath had a 3-4 record. Coupled with his 7-2 mark last year, he has a total won-loss tab of 10-6 in league play.

Story Hour Is New Activity For Local Rec Department

By Madeline Bayer

The Story Hour was a new activity this summer for children of pre-school age to those in the fourth grade. Three picture book stories and usually one fairly tale were told on each visit. "The Biggest Bear," "Madeline," "Horton Hatches the Egg" and many other such stories were told along with "Cinderella," and "The Fisherman and His Wife." Jefferson Elementary School, Westlake School, Crocker School, and the Memorial Community Center were the parks where the Story Hour was held.

Several of the older children enjoyed taking part in the Story Hour by reading some short stories to the smaller children after the story teller had finished for the day. The picture books seemed to hold a special interest for the children, after listening to the story they would instantly want to look at the pictures again. Very often the sun permitted the stories to be read outside on the grass.

Thank you, park directors, for your cooperation in helping this activity to be a success. And to Mrs. Plummer and the other librarians our thanks for your advice about story telling and the selection of books.

FOUR SUSPENSIONS, ONE REVOCATION ON LOCAL LICENSES

Four suspensions and one revocation were levied recently on north county motorists in action by the state department of motor vehicles.

Licenses of Clifford LeRoy Arnold, 504 Miller avenue, Sharp Park, was revoked.

Suspensions went to: Althea Clara Salzberg, 32 Fairway drive; Alf Sverre Rostad, 959 Foothill drive, Broadmoor; Hershel Derl Morris, 247 Vista Grande avenue; and Winifred Ivanhoe, 196 Irvington street.

Permanent reinstatement was granted to Emil Pfeiffer, 456 Manor drive, Pacific Manor.

PIRATES - SARTO TEAM VIE SATURDAY IN PLAYOFF SERIES

By virtue of wins Saturday the Broadmoor Pirates, managed by Al Harris, and Sarto No. 1, tutored by Lowell Creighton, will vie in a best-two-out-of-three game series to decide the Little League champion for 1954.

The contests will be played on the Jefferson High School diamond, with the first set to scheduled this Saturday at 12 noon.

Broadmoor had to overcome a four-run deficit to throttle the hot Sarto No. 2 squad, 6-4.

Fair Settles Down

After the Pirates pride and joy Phil Fair had weathered a four-run attack in the second frame, he settled down to notch a five-hitter, fanning seven batters, walking six.

The loser, Dick Reese, was reached for 10 swats and struck out three batters.

Jim Heick, classy Broadmoor second sacker, led hitting as he slammed a homer in the third frame with Don Harris aboard, then whacked a booming triple in the fifth with Harris at second and Dixie Howell at first.

In the sixth canto centerfielder Bob Parker whacked a double, then scored as Sarto bobbled an infield ball hit by Fair.

Big No. 2 Inning

The Sarto men had a heyday in the second inning as they pelted Fair for four hits, tallying four runs. Getting safeties for Sarto were Mike Kennedy, Jeff Pearlman, John Vena and Dick Reese.

But Fair gave notice that the inning's relaxation was not going to be a habit, as he clamped down for the remaining frames, allowed only one hit, a two-bagger in the fifth by Vena.

In the late afternoon contest Sarto No. 1 rolled up a five-run lead in the first frame over Westlake Beavers, went on to win, 9-4.

Beavers played good defensive ball in all but the first two innings. In that heat Beaver chucker Joe Millet issued five free passes to first base and three infield errors moved the runners on around to score easily.

More Bobbles

Again in the second inning the Sartosmen took advantage of bobbles after George Claus led with a walk and was helped along by lefty Barry Krohn with a single. Bill Whalen and Larry Kane got on base with the help of Beaver errors and three more runs pulled across.

With the score standing at 8-2, the Beavers rallied in the third inning for two runs as Howie McKee, Steve Oppermann, Joe Millet and Sonny Sarto picked up singles.

Bill Whalen was the winning pitcher, Millet the loser. Whalen gave up six bingles, struck out three.

Leading Sarto batsmen were Barry Krohn, Ron Kalinin and Rich Morales. Westlakers hitting safely were Ross Holmgren, Steve Oppermann, Joe Millet, Johnny Sarto and George Cosmos.

Kane vs. Fair

In the playoffs Saturday Sarto No. 1 will probably throw pitcher Larry Kane at the Pirates. The Broadmoor outfit will probably tab Fair for mound duty, he being one of the top twirlers in the circuit.

Both teams have batters who can punch the ball for extra-bases hits with consistency. Pirates' showing particular strength in this department are Dougherty, Harris, Howell and Heick. The Sarto aggregation has Krohn, Kalinin, Larry Kane and Morales to bolster the hitting attack.

League commissioner Lou Martin has assigned three umpires to work the games to insure a fast, smooth-running contest.

OLPH SEEKS STATE OK ON MONTHLY FIGHTS AT CENTER

Application has been made to the state athletic commission for license to present monthly amateur boxing matches at the Daly City community center and the first bout has tentatively been set for October 28, THE RECORD learned today.

Richard R. Liberty, president of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Men's club, who will sponsor the program, said his group was optimistic that the state commission would approve their application.

Last month the local recreation commission gave their sanction to staging the monthly fight card, providing the OLPH club would pay the regular fee for use of the center.

Walter Gillies is arranging the October 28-fistic program, and said he would announce participants as soon as they have been engaged. Offering of the monthly contests will mark a revival of Daly City-Colma boxing activity, which ebbed shortly after the turn of the century.

With the exception of recreation department sponsored matches, virtually no boxing has been presented here for more than a decade.

Hearts Bleed For Joe Verducci As Season Approaches

Prep "Sportscope" Will Preview PAL Grid September 25

Prep Sportscope is the name of a new sports show devoted strictly to Prep sports in the Bay Area. It will be heard on station KYA every Monday and Friday from 6:15 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. The show will hit the air starting Sept. 18th, with a broadcast tape-recorded at the A.A.A. pageant. The tape will be replayed from 5:25 p.m. to 5:55 p.m. on Saturday, the 18th.

The following Saturday, Sept. 25th, the "Sportscope" will preview the P.A.L. with guest for the show being "Ray DeJong" the coach of South City High. The following Monday, Sept. 27th, the "Sportscope" begins its regular 6:15 to 6:30 broadcast.

The mike work for the "Sportscope" is to be done by Gary Verbin. Gary graduated from George Washington High School in San Francisco in June of 1954 and has been making a name for himself on the prep scene ever since. He's done some radio work with the sports director of KNBC, Ira Blue, and is recognized as a top authority on the prep sports scene.

The show will cover the A.A.A. and P.A.L. with periodical reports from other leagues in the area. It will have very interesting features including interviews with top prep stars and their coaches plus contests for the listeners which will enable them to win radios and phonographs given by the sponsor.

So remember "Prep Sportscope" with Gary Verbin—station KYA, 1260 on your dial, time slot 6:15 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Monday and Friday evenings.

ROCKETS ARE CHAMPIONS AFTER FOUR TRIES

It's final Westlake Rockets are the 1954 San Mateo County Junior League Baseball champions.

After seeing the crown slip from their grasp because of a protested game, then having the rubber game postponed, the Rockets made it decisive Saturday at Flood Park as they jumped on errors by the Belmont Blues to win 9 to 5.

The Westlakers were outlit, 5 to 3, but eight errors by the Blues tilted the advantage to the local team.

Paul Tapia, in the forced absence of Ed Leveroni, who was declared "three weeks too old," gave a credible pitching performance, considering it was only his third full game. Leveroni had handled the bulk of pitching chores for the Rocket nine.

Due to some mix-up in the county recreation department, box scores of the championship contest were not made available.

Joe Verducci, Daly City's titular head of government and probably the only mayor in the country who's a head football coach, or vice versa, gave some indication today why the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce last year awarded him the annual "Crying Towel" for pessimism above and beyond the call of duty.

After a rough weekend going over municipal ordinances, affixing his official seal to city mandates and other wise tidying up the numerous jobs that come with the mayoralty, Joe stepped out in the stark light of Labor Day last week and sized up some several tons of football muscle that had gathered from the four corners of the grid kingdom at his San Francisco State college stadium.

Table It

Asked for a concise estimate of his team's potential, Joe pulled some official jargon out of the book: "I think we ought to table this matter for further study."

A week earlier, the mayor was quoted in a metropolitan newspaper as saying, "We could beat any of the teams in the Far Western Conference on any given night."

Joe, a man of short stature, appeared a giant killer at that writing.

Today, after a week of sizing up

Joe Verducci

... a political football

some of the "variances, omissions and personnel deficiencies" in his gridiron machine, Verducci has made an amendment to his original proclamation.

"We scrimmaged Saturday against the Presidio and looked real bad," Verducci declared. As mayor, Joe only has a four-man team to coach.

Some several dozen SFS performers took part in Saturday's scrimmage, but according to the mayor's prognosis, "We couldn't run or pass against them," which is just about like saying his team should have stood in bed.

Roberts Rules

Just about when it appeared the mayor was setting himself up as a cinch for the "Crying Towel" championship again this year, he drew from the Roberts Rules of Order on parliamentary procedure called for a point of order.

"However," he said, reverting to the politician's approach of qualifying all statements, "I am three deep at all positions and it'll be the first time in my history at State that I don't have to depend on freshmen to fill the first string gaps."

Verducci jeopardized his standing in the crying towel competition further by adding that, "Two players who'll bolster the team plenty weren't here for the scrimmage. Bob Rodrigo was out with a pulled leg muscle and Jim Boggan has a ruptured leg muscle."

A True Bill

Then, with optimism grown of experience in the field of governmental activity, Joe let it be known that Dick Ellis looked "very good" on passing, while George Wehner was "outstanding" in the pass receiving department.

But the rosinness dimmed to a more somber hue when Verducci quipped, "We've got lots of boys, not too many men."

Like politics, eagerness counts and so does polish, but you've got to put the two together before you've got a real team, Verducci indicated.

"We're mainly strong in the eagerness department right now," the mayor said.

It's Big Year

This is the big year for Verducci from one outlook, however. It marks his first year as mayor and the return of his college to the Far Western Conference after bowing out in 1951.

With an itinerary of pigskin campaigns that starts with Nevada, September 25 and winds up November with Fresno State, the mayor says, "That schedule is tough."

Looking up with cautious optimism from a desk littered with several city resolutions and contracts, interspersed with diagrams for an end-around play and a triple-flanker strategy, Verducci summed the situation up as it stands today: "It'll be rough but things sure look good on paper."

TEN SECONDS TO PASS

It takes about ten seconds to pass another moving automobile, says the California State Automobile Association, which adds that at 60 miles an hour your car will travel 880 feet in that time. If another car is approaching at equal speed, the distance required for you to pass safely is 1760 feet, to which a margin should be added for safety.
